

Dr. Amjad Ali

dramjadtunio@gmail.com

+923133871999

House 117, Sachal Colony, Larkana, Sindh, Pakistan.
77150

Key skills

- Analytical Ability
- Data Entry and Analysis
- Team work and co-ordination
- Adequate knowledge of MS office, Excel
- Build efficient teams
- Exposure to vast administrative setups
- Adaptability to work in public as well as private sector
- Good communication skill

Education

Masters of Science in Public Health (MSPH)
Health Services Academy,
Islamabad
2022

Bachelors of Medicine and Bachelors of Surgery (MBBS)
Chandka Medical College
2013

Summary

Self-motivated creative and equipped with more than five years of diverse experience in public and private health sector. I am able to handle proficiently multiple tasks on daily basis. I am always energetic and eager to acquire new skills, having vast experience of working as part of team as well as leading the teams. I am quite flexible at work. I strongly believe in work ethics, productivity and efficiency and adopt solution-oriented approach even under stressful circumstances. I am also highly determined to add value and make difference in the working mechanisms, delegation and automation wherever I have got the opportunity.

Career history

Medical Officer at Health department, Government of Sindh, Pakistan (Government Scale BS-17)

November 2017 – In service

Key responsibilities

- To achieve goals by planning, budgeting, coordinating and monitoring.
- To provide assistance at all levels of health system may it be curative, preventive or administrative.
- To work for health promotion of general population.

Achievements

- Improved compliance of patients to take preventive measures against tuberculosis in posted hospital.
- As focal person of District Health Information System, I achieved various monitoring objectives including filling of monthly reports and conducted refresher training of assigned staff.
- As focal person of health education (Health Promotion), I successfully designed the strategy to disseminate printed material for effective preventive measures against communicable and non-communicable diseases.

Medical Officer at Trust for vaccines and Immunization

July 2015 – December 2016

. Key responsibilities

- To cover target population for immunization during mobile camps
- To provide primary healthcare to target population

Achievements

- Improved coverage of primary immunization
- Conducted community sessions for health promotion

Interests

- Health system Administrative work
- To organise and conduct health promotion activities

References

Will be furnished when requested.